Called: 2026

Email: clerks@187chambers.com

Nathan began his pupillage in September 2026.

Before joining the Bar, Nathan held a range of political and policy-focused roles. He began his career as a Parliamentary Assistant at the European Parliament in Brussels during the Brexit transition period. He then joined the British Medical Association during the COVID-19 pandemic, focusing on its impact on the medical workforce and contributing to the BMA's response to the COVID-19 Inquiry. Nathan later worked as a Senior Researcher at City Hall, focusing on policing and crime policy and police oversight. Most recently, he was Policy Manager for the Young and Employed Barristers' Committees at the Bar Council of England and Wales.
